The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XX^th Year.] THURSDAY, September 27, 1764. [N^o. 1012.]

LONDON, June 16.

WEDNESDAY last Mr. Pitt came from his Seat at Hayes, to Lord Temple's House in Pallmall, and on Thursday there was a Council at the Queen's Palace, in St. James's Park, but it is not known whether Affairs are quite in so bad a State as to require able Men to retrieve them immediately, though it may be, that when Matters are run into so much Confusion, that it's present Directors can stand it no longer, they will leave the Augean Stable to be cleared by their Successors.

We hear his Majesty has been pleased to appoint James Macpherson, Esq; (who tho' upwards of 70 Years of Age, so gallantly distinguished himself as a common Soldier in one of the Battalions of Highlanders, at the Siege of Quebec) to be Secretary-General to the Province of West Florida; and Saturday that Gentleman set out for Portsmouth, in order to embark with his Excellency Governor Johnstone for that Place.

June 26. We are informed that public Business of all Kinds is entirely at a Stand, and that a Change is certainly expected in the Administration: It is hoped it will be such a one as will put an End to our intestine Divisions, and restore Dignity to our Country.

'Tis said a Scheme is on Foot to raise an equal Land-Tax throughout the Kingdom, which will produce an almost incredible Increase to that Branch of the public Revenue.

June 28. They write from Berlin, that the King of Prussia granted, on the 19th ult. a Patent to the Sieur Teegel, Privy Counsellor of Commerce, to re-establish an East-India Company at Embden.

We hear that 1600 Marines are to be immediately raised; for which Purpose a great Number of Parties are recruiting in various Parts of the Kingdom.

Letters from Toulon of the 4th Instant advise, that the Ship-Wrights had left off working on the Men of War Le Languedoc, Le Bourgoignon, and Le Marseillois, which have been on the Stocks a long Time; the Cause of which is not known, but it was not for Want of Timber, there being plenty in the Magazines: The Workmen are chiefly employed there in building and fitting out Le Hirondelle, a Bark, Le Hector, Le Souverain, and Le Sultane, a new Frigate of 50 Guns, but having few Hands, the Work goes on very slow.

We hear that some Peers will shortly be advanced to higher Dignities.

Yesterday Morning the Right Hon. William Pitt came from his Seat at Hayes, to Lord Temple's House in Pallmall. At Noon he attended his Majesty's Levee at St. James's, and was there a considerable Time. After Dinner he set out again for Hayes. From the Circumstances of his going to Court, and his having been in Town last Week, the Report continues to gain Ground, that a Change in the Administration is certainly on the Carpet. All good Men wish it were accomplished; for 'til it is, there are no Hopes of putting the Affairs of our Country on a proper and respectable Footing, which the very critical Situation of Things both at home and abroad, so urgently Demands.

Lord Sandwich was also at the Levee, but he did not stay.

The Right Hon. George Grenville, who is, at present, first Lord of the Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer, is gone down to his Seat at Wooton in Bucks.

It was Yesterday Morning reported, that Orders have been very lately sent to the Governor of Newfoundland, to admit no French Ships of War within a certain Latitude of those Seas, except in Cases of Distress. This is imitating the Spaniards at the Havannah, who are extremely jealous even of Merchants Ships.

The Report still continues, that a Squadron of Men of War will speedily be put into Commission, and that the Commissioners of the Victualling-Office have received Orders to prepare accordingly.

It is confidently asserted, that our Ambassador at a certain Court will shortly return to England.

The Actions brought for false Imprisonment, by sundry Authors, Booksellers, and Printers, which have already been determined, as well as those that are not yet decided, having engrossed the Attention of all true Lovers of Liberty, our Readers will here see at one View (the Whole of the Expences to which a rash Step hath subjected sundry Persons, as also those which yet hang in the Courts.

June 30. We hear that some fresh Instructions are shortly to be sent to the Earl of Rochford, Ambassador at the Court of Spain.

It is reported that two noble Earls will shortly resign, with Pensions of 2000 l. per Annum each.

Advices from Lisbon mention, that Four Thousand Tons of naval and military Stores have been lately shipped for the Portuguese Settlements in the Brazils. Orders are also sent over to build, at St. Salvadore, five Men of War of the Line, and to put every Place of Strength on the Frontiers in a proper State of Defence.

Thursday Evening the Hon. Thomas Boone, Esq; Governor of South Carolina, arrived in Town from thence, but last from Portsmouth; and Yesterday he waited on his Majesty at St. James's, and was graciously received.

July 6. The late Ralph Allen, Esq; of Bath, has left upwards of 40,000 l. in Legacies, and amongst them 1000 l. to the Right Honourable William Pitt.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20.

Fort Cumberland, August 28, 1764.

"On the Twenty-second Instant a Party of Indians in Virginia, at Stover's Town, took three Scalps, and two Prisoners, being a Woman, and a Child of four Years old, which they tomahawked and scalped, after carrying it two Days. On the Twenty-fourth a Party was sent from the South Branch, and another from Patterson's Creek, in order to cut them off on their Return. Lieutenant Stanton, of Capt. Macdonald's Company, with 45 Men, set out upon this Intelligence, on Braddock's Road, and was advanced as far as the Forks of the Road beyond the Little Meadows, when they came up with two Indians, one of whom they killed and scalped, and mortally wounded the other, who, it is [illegible], was found dead the next Day. They likewise retook two Horses, and all the Indians Baggage, together with the Wearing Apparel of one Mrs. Gibbons, whom they killed the 25th, within a Mile of this Garrison, where she was found this Day. On the 26th Capt. Macdonald went to reinforce his Lieutenant, and met him at Savage River. A few Minutes before the Captain came up, the Lieutenant fell in with a Party of Indians returning from the Inhabitants, being ten in Number; but the Indians discovering our People, immediately took to a Laurel Swamp, before they had Time to have one fair Shot at them; notwithstanding they fired several times, but killed nor wounded none. They retook the White Woman which the Enemy had made Prisoner at Stover's Town, and all their Baggage. Upon this Capt. Macdonald immediately detached an Officer, and 40 good Woodsmen, with Orders not to touch the great Road, until they came to the Forks, over the Crossing of the first Youghiogeny, where they were to remain all that Night, and examine the Road for Indian Tracks; and just as they came to the Road, they saw two Indians coming towards them, one riding, the other walking, leading a Horse; but they likewise seeing our People, took directly to the Woods, leaving their Horses behind them; the Party fired several Shot after them, but they did not give one Fire in Return. Captain Macdonald returned Yesterday with the Scalp and Prisoner."

Camp at Fort Bedford, September 5, 1764.

"The Pack-horses and Escorts that went to Fort Pitt with Provisions, returned Yesterday; and this Day the second Convoy begins to march for that Post.

"The following Letter is just arrived from the Commanding Officer at Fort Cumberland.

Fort Cumberland, September 5, 1764.

"A great Number of Indians have been Fires upon the South Branch of Potowmack, and about which Millicken Captain Macdonald is gone with his Company of Rifflers to Way-lay them, when they go back, and I hope to send you good News within Eight Days."

September 22, 1764.

To be SOLD, pursuant to the Last Will and Testament of John Colvill, Gentleman, deceased, on the 24th Day of April, 1765, at the House of Mr. Arthur Charlton, in Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, Maryland, for Sterling Money, Bills of Exchange, or Current Money of Pennsylvania, Maryland, or Virginia, at the current Rates of Exchange,

A VERY valuable Tract of LAND called Mercyland, in the said County, containing 6300 Acres, lying along the Foot of the lower Side of the Shenandoa Mountain, and along the Banks of Patowmack River, within 12 or 13 Miles of Frederick-Town, where great Trade and Business is carried on. It is very convenient for a Dutch Settlement, as many of those People live near and about it. It is well Watered and Wooded, and in the Neighbourhood of two large Iron-Works. It will be Sold altogether, or in Lots or Parcels of 500 or 1000 Acres, as may be most convenient to the Purchasers; for one Half of which, a Year's Credit will be given (if desired) upon giving good Security, and allowing Interest. A Plat of the said Tract may be seen in the Hands of Mr. Charlton aforesaid.

A false and scandalous Advertisement, publish'd in the Maryland Gazette, of the 6th of this Instant September, in the Name of John Patterson, Agent for the Earl of Tankerville, to prejudice the Sale of the said Tract, obliges me to obviate the ill Consequences that may arise from it, by publishing such Part of the Testator's Will as I judge may satisfy the Purchasers of my Power to make them a good Title.

This Tract of Land called Mercyland, is expressly devised to be Sold for the Payment of Debts and Legacies; and if the Money raised by it, should fall short to discharge them, I am expressly impowered by the Will to raise the Deficiency by a Sale of any of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, (devised to Lord Tankerville) as shall seem to me most expedient, except his Lordship, choosing rather to prevent the Sale of any Part of the said Virginia Land and Negroes, will assume upon himself the Discharge of such Deficiency, and wholly quit, exonerate, and indemnify me, as Executor, therefrom.

Lord Tankerville is appointed an Executor with me, and the only Debts of Consequence are due to Persons in Great-Britain: I have Prov'd the Will, and given Security in this Country; He hath done neither; so that I am liable to the Payment of Debts; he cannot be compelled. I have wrote to him repeatedly to settle these Affairs in Britain, and save the Virginia Lands from Sale, or give me Bond and Security here, that I might be indemnified against the Creditors: But after waiting almost Nine Years for his Lordship's Determination, he still declines giving me such Indemnification; and the Creditors, now wearied with Delays and Disappointments, have actually commenced Suits against me, even for the very Legacies which this Agent, Patterson, so impudently asserts to be paid.

Out of Respect to his Lordship, I shall forbear, at this Time, mentioning his Payments of Debts and Legacies, or other Proceedings, except called upon by this sagacious Agent to answer some other Essay of his Wit and Veracity.

I should not have mentioned these Circumstances, but to detect the Falsehoods in the said Advertisement to discourage the Sale of this Land, evidently not to my Disadvantage, but his Lordship's, as it may force the Sale of some of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, which I have aim'd at preserving to him entire.

It would afford very little Amusement to the Public, and be very disagreeable to me, to enter into an Altercation with such a Person as Patterson is well known to be: But this may be necessary for me to say, that I shall (God willing) attend the Sale, produce the original Papers, together with an authentick Copy of the Will, under which I derive my Power (which will shew the Falsity of his Lordship's being appointed Residuary Legatee, as also that his Concurrence in the Sale is not necessary) sufficient to convince any Purchaser, that his Title from me cannot be impeach'd. When this is done, it may be a Question, whether any Thing but invincible Ignorance, and matchless Effrontery, could influence Patterson to prefer the Public with an Advertisement, directly to the manifest Prejudice of his Principal, and replete with Stupidity and Falsehood.

THOMAS COLVILL.

N. B. The Plat, and an authentick Copy of the Will, will be lodg'd with Mr. Charlton in due Time.

WHEREAS there is a Dispute between John Howard, Son of Benjamin, and the Subscriber living in Baltimore County, in regard to the Title of Two Tracts of Land lying in Anne-Arundel County, on a Point of Patapsco River, and near the Elk-Ridge Landing. And as it hath been thought by many Persons to be very convenient for Building a Town thereon, and as the Gentlemen of Elk-Ridge, and other Parts, have taken a great many Lots on the same, by Agreement with the said Mr. John Howard, and as this Dispute seems to put a Stop to the Building thereon, This is to inform the Purchasers of the said Lots, That if the Land should belong to the Subscriber, they shall have them as agreed for with said Howard. And I further inform any Gentleman that inclines to purchase Lots, that it is a very fine Place for that Purpose, having several fine Cool Springs on it, and a large Old Field very level and dry, with the Conveniency of a Sea Trade, and a fine, rich, extensive Country back of it, from whence is brought to the said Landing, large Quantities of Tobacco, Wheat, Indian Corn, Hemp, Beef, Pork, and all other Articles for Merchandize.
